

Board Trustee

We are recruiting new trustees to our Board

NIDAS supports women and families with all aspects of domestic abuse. We believe being free from abuse is only the start of the journey. We support those affected by domestic abuse to stay safe, grow their self-esteem and go on to build happy, healthy relationships. Our team work in a kind, caring and non-judgemental way, providing personalised support for as long as it is needed.

We aim to provide:

- Rapid, accessible support and risk assessments for women and families affected by domestic abuse
- Practical domestic abuse support for those affected by domestic abuse
- Emotional support to rebuild self-esteem, confidence and family relationships
- Wider holistic support, by signposting to the services of trusted partners and advocacy with other agencies
- Building support networks by awareness raising amongst family members, professionals and other charities
- A skilled and financially sustainable organisation to deliver this support

We are looking for new trustees with passion to serve those affected by domestic abuse and who have skills and experience in one or more of these areas:

- Charity finance including financial planning and budgeting, and year-end accounts.
- Fundraising from trusts and foundations
- Business development
- PR, social media and marketing.
- Governance
- Survivor of Domestic Abuse

Whether you are an experienced trustee or wanting to take your first step at board level, we want to hear from you.

Registered Charity No: 1105613 | Company No. 5201290

As a trustee you will:

- Have an induction, training and reimbursable expenses
- Contribute to positively changing the lives of those affected by domestic violence.
- Have opportunities to develop new skills and to network with professionals

The expected time commitment is a 6 weekly board meeting, which usually take place in Mansfield or on a virtual basis. As well as preparing for the board meetings, trustees are asked to serve on a committee or ad-hoc working groups and may be called upon for specific advice in their areas of expertise.
